Short Notes

Regularly scheduled Town of Nunda board meetings in 1988 will be held the second Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the Town Hall Building on South Church Street.

On Jan. 8, Mrs. Marze Blair received a phone call from her daughter, Mrs. Stephen Metro (June) of Pinecrest, N.C., who reported they were experiencing a six-inch snowfall. The deepest snow in the memory of long-time residents in that area.

Nunda Rotary Club will meet at noon in Trinity Church of Nunda at the corner of East and Massachusetts Sts. on Jan. 21 and 24. The first two Thursdays of January the club met at Nunda United Methodist Church. The changes in meeting place is due to Bill's Restaurant being closed for vacation during January.

Tuesday, Jan. 19, at 6 p.m. the "55 and Over" Club will meet at the Nunda Methodist Church. If you are 55 or over, please come and bring your own table service and a dish for the buffet.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harrington and three children of Indiana spent the holidays with relatives and friends here. They were recent dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sleight.

This correspondent entertained at a family Christmas and birthday gathering on Dec. 20. Attending were Larry, Billie and Melissa Weaver; Billy and Kellie Cross and one-month-old Zachary Allan, all of Rochester; Robin, Marlon and Ryan Lee Krupp of Naples; Harry, Sherry and Corey Weaver of Canaseraga; Lyle, Mary, Jason and Tyler Weaver. The birthday fete was for my foster-granddaughter, Robin Krupp. We all had an enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Dieter entertained at a family dinner Christmas Eve. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Brett Brewster, Michael and Stacey of Almond, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dieter, Aaron and Amy of Dansville.

We sure are having our share of a steady cold spell. Two mornings here it was 14 below. But, it is good healthy weather—just have to dress warmer in order to be outside.
